

11th Sept. 2001

Dear Julie,

Thank you for my dazzling smile (well, you were right -
no-one noticed but they did when I kept telling them about it!)

The retainer is still in place and very tolerable, so I am keeping my fingers crossed that all will be well.
Nev thinks my teeth look wonderful (well, he actually said that he fell in love with me for my crossed-over teeth,
so I am sending him in to pay my bill
since he's due for a check-up anyway.)

Thank-you for working on my teeth
with such care and patience.

Best wishes,

Janet Phillips.
